

Permission to publish

I give permission for the English Teachers' Association NSW to publish which is all my own work. I understand that there may be teacher annotations added to clarify learning objectives for other students.

.....

I also understand that copyright will belong to the English Teachers' Association and the material may be used in any form or medium. The work may be used in supporting any material produced by the English Teachers' Association NSW in any publication that is free of charge or for sale in the interests of improving the professional development of teachers or the learning outcomes of English students.

I understand that there will be no information attached to the work that may lead to my identification.

Yours sincerely,

Date